

Dear Sirs:

The state of Indiana has a very good telephone privacy law. It has practically eliminated unwanted calls. We understand that a national privacy law is being considered. Hopefully, it would be as good as Indiana's. Thank you for your attention to this request.